

Machine description ideas

What materials might the different elements be made of?		What shapes do you see?
How do things move/connect with other elements? What verbs would you use?	What memories do you see?
	What colours do you see?	What similes do you think of?